MTA SOLICITORS ACHIEVES TOP LEGAL ACCREDITATION

Bromley and Manchester based MTA Solicitors has achieved the highest legal accreditation for excellence from The Law Society, gaining the Lexcel practice management standard. It is a scheme to certify that specific standards have been met, following an independent assessment.

Only awarded to solicitors who meet the highest levels of management and customer care, Lexcel also requires standards of excellence in case management and risk management, all of which are re-assessed year on year to ensure consistency.

Robert Heslett, President of the Law Society of England and Wales commented, "MTA Solicitor's achievement of gaining the Lexcel accreditation proves a commitment to the continual development of the practice's management standards. By implementing policies, plans, processes and procedures within Lexcel's key areas, such as client service and risk management, MTA Solicitor's will become even more effective in managing its practice. In addition, this achievement shows the positive steps taken by MTA to help clients in the increasingly diverse, complicated and competitive legal market."

David Green, CEO of MTA Solicitors said "Efficient systems are key to delivering the highest levels of service to our customers, which is our top priority. We are delighted to have gained this accreditation from the Law Society and will ensure that we continue to excel in all areas of the scheme.

We are now working towards attaining the Investors in People accreditation, to ensure that our own employees are being as well looked after as our customers."
