

The Team

Guy Kirkham

Guy is a technical practice manager at MTA and has over 25 years' experience in various types of litigation to include all aspects of debt recovery. Guy has been at MTA Solicitors since 2009. In addition to the services above Guy is also able to assist clients in group and class actions as well as additional services such as statutory demands, bankruptcy petitions against individuals and winding up petitions against companies.

Anna Harvey

Anna is a senior paralegal and has over 6 years' experience in debt recovery, 4 of which have been at MTA Solicitors. Anna is experienced in all aspects of private and commercial debt recovery to include invoiced debt, contractual debt, and consumer debt. In addition, Anna has experience in all aspects of enforcement action to include warrants of execution, attachment of earnings, charging orders and third party debt orders.

Joanne Bloyce

Joanne is a litigation paralegal and has over 9 years' experience in debt recovery at MTA Solicitors. Joanne is experienced in all aspects of private and commercial debt recovery to include invoiced debt, contractual debt, and consumer debt. In addition, Joanne has experience in all aspects of enforcement action to include warrants of execution, attachment of earnings, charging orders and third party debt order